EXPLORING THE STORY OF GOD

Every day of our lives we are caught up in stories; through books, TV shows, movies, and even chatting with friends over coffee. We seek stories out for the adventure and the romance. We love the compelling characters and the gripping plotlines of a book or a movie. Why are we so moved by story? Because it's written in our hearts, in our very DNA. The Word of God reads like the best love story ever written. Full of heroes and heroines who show up just in time to save the day; kings and beasts, celebrations and feasts, the Bible is the story of God's relentless love-pursuit of His people.

The story of God culminates in an unparalleled climax at the death and resurrection of Jesus. This was God's way of pulling us back into His story. God is writing an epic tale and He longs for us to be a part of it! You see, we all are strands in God's chronicle of glory. Ephesians chapter two is full of adventure, unearthly imagery, and the heroic acts of Christ.

"But because of his great love for us, God, who is rich in mercy, made us alive with Christ even when we were dead in transgressions - it is by grace you have been saved. . . For we are God's handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do."
Eph. 2:4-5, 10

Having been created in God's own image, we each have important tasks to accomplish within the story of God. You play a vital role in God's plan. Wherever God has written you into the story, no matter where you live or work, that is the thread that He wants you to pick up and run with. It is not on our own strength, or by our own works that we have this high calling on our lives. It is through the grace and love of the Father and the sacrifice of Jesus that we can even be a part of God's family and God's story.

We are calling each of you to step outside of your daily lives, stop what you're doing, and take a look at the bigger picture, the great adventure that God is weaving together for His glory. Once we can grasp the story arc that God is writing, our own worries, desires, and fears begin to fade into the background. As we step back for the grander view, let's ask how we fit into God's epic tale. Where does the thread of your delicate life play its part in God's great adventure?

Guest Speaker KERRIKENYON

Kerri's passion, born out of her own story of grace, is for men and women to walk in the fullness and freedom of their created design. Her passion is to encourage you to address the lies, fear, and shame that invade your life on a daily basis. Her aim is to challenge and equip you to boldly and strategically claim truth by learning to use the Word of God as your sword. Her messages of hope and freedom are designed to uplift and champion you towards a more intimate relationship with Jesus Christ. Kerri has a BA in Communication Arts from Cedarville University in Cedarville, OH and an MA in Specialized Ministry from Western Seminary in Portland, OR. After completing her graduate studies, she served as the Director of Enrollment, the Dean of Women, and then as the Director of Ministry Relations at Western Seminary. Kerri then moved to Atlanta, Georgia to become the Director for the National Women's Ministry Association at Dr. John Maxwell's INJOY.

Kerri also ministered in a teaching and training role for the Portland Rescue Mission. There she was incredibly blessed to see men and women rescued out of the kingdom of darkness and into the Kingdom of Light by accepting Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior. Her greatest joy is to witness the power that raised Him from the dead, alive in those who were once defeated, hopeless, addicted, and in spiritual bondage.

Kerri has a deep passion for sharing the truth of God's Word and she can be heard weekly on OnePlace.com where her on-line Bible study, ALIVE BIBLE STUDY WITH KERRI KENYON, is heard by listeners from all over the world.

Currently, Kerri is a counselor for men and women coming out of spiritual bondage, addiction, and abusive relationships. On weekends she shares The Word of God at retreats and conferences around the nation.

Glamping brings the luxury of everyday life to the campground. Spacious tents filled with oversized air mattresses and connected by cafe lights make the glampsite feel so welcoming and homey. It's a great way to sleep under the stars with friends and still get to shower! Who wouldn't want to bond with ladies from their church over a warm campfire just steps away from home for the weekend?

Consider glamping as a lodging option this year for you and your group! Tents, mattresses, and ambiance provided. You bring your own bedding and necessities.

Recreation

During recreation times, you can enjoy swimming in Camp Tadmor's lake, canoeing, ping pong, sand volleyball, the giant swing, disc golf, hiking trails, and crafts which will be stationed at Meadow Ridge.

Make sure to bring sturdy shoes for these various activities. This year, we will have lawn games set up in the recreational field, and will even hold a tournament on Saturday afternoon!
