

As believers in Jesus Christ, we are a part of the universal church and we take great solace in His promise to build His church. Although the CB Northwest covenant community is no more than a sliver of churches in the Northwest, they are the ones that we have been given the closest connection and relationship to. This graph depicts the total number of churches that are officially affiliated in the covenant community of churches we call CB Northwest.

As we praise Him for His faithful work our transformed hearts long for more churches and more gospel saturation in the Northwest. Let us keep pressing on until the day of our Lord's return.

In the last ten years:
